The 1968-69 edition of the Alfarata is dedicated to President John N. Stauffer

Dr. Stauffer graduated from Juniata College in 1936. Two years later he married M. Louise Lee, another member of the Class of 1936. Since then they have had four children. Thomas, who is a doctoral candidate in International Relations at the University of Denver; Nancy, a French Instructor at a high school in Worthington, Ohio; John, a medical student at the University of Rochester; and Donald, a student at Mercersburg Academy.

Since receiving his B.S. at Juniata, Dr. Stauffer received a Master of Arts in Psychology at the University of Pennsylvania in 1942 and a Doctorate in Counseling and Higher Education in 1956 at the Pennsylvania State University. Also, in 1964 he was awarded the title of Doctor of Laws at Juniata and in 1968 that of Doctor of Humane Letters at Wittenberg University.

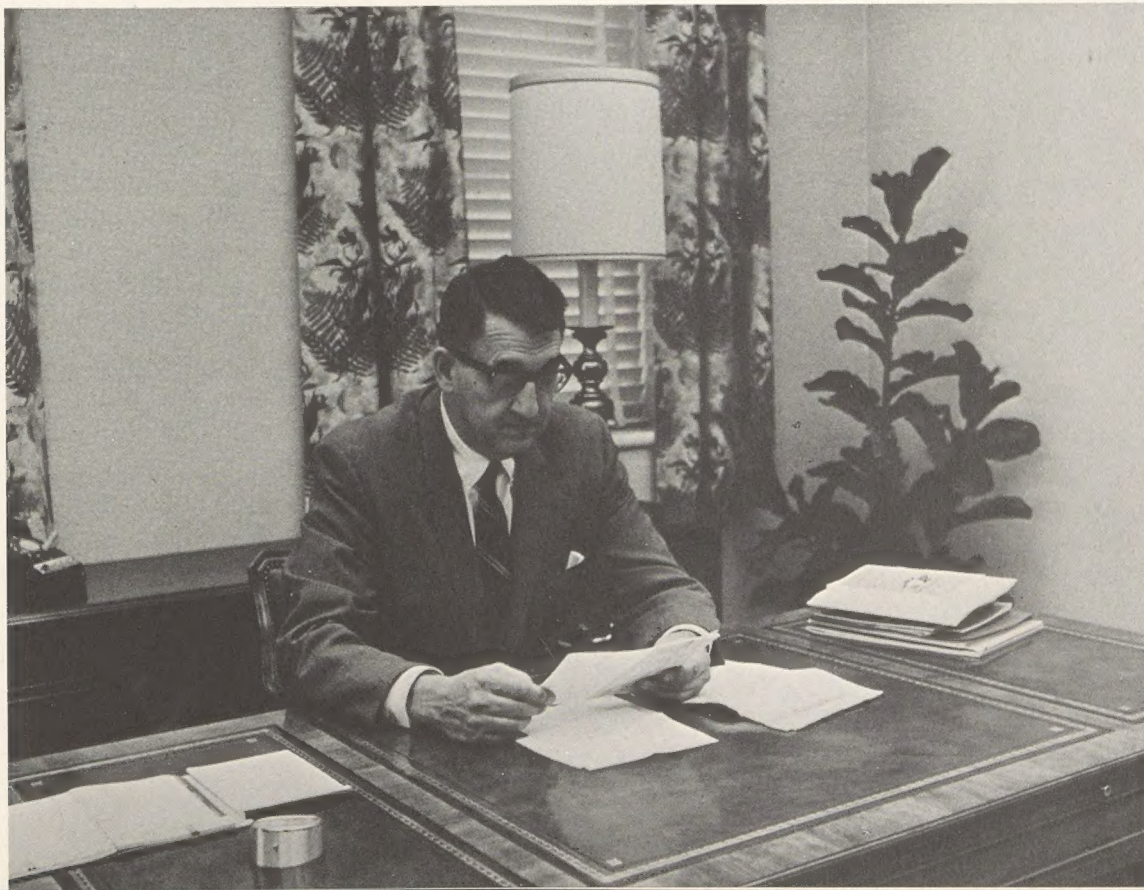

From 1963-68, Dr. Stauffer held the position of president of Wittenberg University, where in this short period he managed to establish a School of Music as a major division and to set up a master plan for campus development.

In the summer of 1968, Dr. Stauffer left Wittenberg to return to his alma mater and fill the seat of President of the College which was vacated by Dr. Calvert N. Ellis. It is yet too early to enumerate President Stauffer's accomplishments at Juniata, but with this dedication go our best wishes to President and Mrs. Stauffer for a pleasant and successful future at Juniata.

Lovers of good music, the Stauffers prepare to play a new record.

Dr. Stauffer states, in his open letter to faculty and students, that he hopes Juniata will continue to pursue the objectives of a Christian liberal arts college.

Becky Fraley and Joe Korn stride in time to the center of Mountain Day action.

Fall Mountain Day

On a brisk October morning busloads of classroom escapees headed for Whipple's Dam and Fall Mountain Day. Some managed to get up and arrive in time for lunch; some came earlier to enjoy the change of scenery. Nature lovers found plenty of hiking trails while other lovers blazed independent ones. After lunch everyone gathered to cheer on or participate in the inter-class tug of war, followed by the traditional guy-girl egg tossing contest, and the Senior-Faculty football game. Other highlights of the day included volleyball, frisbee, and fires on the sand where frozen JC students even tried a little out-of-season beachcoming.

There were those who spent their day relaxing in solitary contemplation of a book.

Senior men do their best to win the inter-class tug of war contest.

Homecoming 1968

Homecoming 1968 began on a rainy Friday night with a pep rally introducing the Queen, Pamela Haskell, and her attendants Sharon Cramer, Senior attendant, and Barbara Brogan, Junior attendant. The pep rally expressed the desire for a clear Saturday and a football victory. Although the weather caused the cancellation of Saturday morning's festivities which included the parade of various bands and floats based on the theme "Fantasy in Time"; it cleared up for the afternoon events of the parade at half-time, the coronation of the queen, and a victory over Lycoming. The weekend closed with a concert by Jay and the Techniques and the annual Homecoming Dance.

The Beaux Stratagem

On December 22 the Theatre Royal Windsor presented "The Beaux Stratagem" by George Farquhar.

This fantastically funny play dealt with two 18th century fortune-seeking playboys who set out to exploit the rich heiress, Mrs. Sullen. The two imposters, Thomas Aimwell and Francis Archer, traveled under the guise of a gentleman and his servant. The plot was complicated by the drunken husband, the suspicions of Lady Bountiful, the band of highwaymen, and even love itself.

The Sophomore Class took first place in the Christmas decoration contest when they transformed Founder's Hall into Santa's hang-out.

Christmas at Juniata

The Christmas weekend began with the annual Christmas decoration contest. The decorations were "put up" Saturday afternoon on various buildings around campus by the classes. After the decorations were completed, the Christmas Banquet was held in the two dining halls. Entertainment was provided in the dining halls by Dr. Hunter and Dr. Church, Kay Burtner, and the Juniata College Choir, to the theme of an "International Christmas." Following the banquet, couples proceeded to the annual Christmas Dance in Memorial Gymnasium. The weekend closed with a Christmas Party given by PSEA on Sunday afternoon for little children.

The Freshman Class took second place in the contest by decorating Oller Hall as a haven for Snoopy and his friends.

Pennsylvania Ballet

On Friday, February 14th, The Pennsylvania Ballet performed for a full house in Oller Hall. The group is based in Philadelphia, and has grown over the last five years into an international dance organization. This year, Juniata became part of their first national tour. The program included "Allegro Brillante" by Tchaikovsky, "Villon" by Robert Starer, "Mignon Pas De Deux" by Ambroise Thomas, and "Donizetti Variations" by Gaetano Donizetti. The pieces were choreographed by George Balanchine, John Butler, and Robert Rodham. The group's founder and director, Barbara Weisberger, is a former student of George Balanchine.

La Boheme

On Wednesday evening, March 12th, The Turnau Opera Players presented "La Boheme," an opera by Puccini. The performance was part of the Focus Series and was given in English. The Turnau Company is one of America's most active and widely acclaimed touring companies.

The opera took place in Paris in the poor Latin quarter. From the romantic tragedy the spirit of Bohemian Paris emerged beautifully.

Juniata Concert Choir

The Juniata College Concert Choir spent the first week of the second semester on tour, presenting performances as far East as New Jersey. Returning to Juniata, they gave a Homecoming Concert on February 10th, which included selections by Hanson, Copley, Thompson, and others. A chamber ensemble accompanied the choir on several numbers.

The doors of Memorial Gymnasium opened on February 28th to "The Vogues," one of the top popular music groups in the country, and the second big-name entertainment concert this year. The enthusiastic crowd heard both hard rock and standards performed with ease. Other entertainment was provided by Don Miller's "Delegation" and Harold Rhoads and his "Sound System."

"The Twin Menaechni," a rollicking Roman romp by Plautus, was presented to the Juniata student body as the Spring Major Play. The story concerned two twins, who parted at birth, were unknowingly in the same city. Needless to say, they caused mass confusion to all concerned. The cast performed this hysterical farce with vigor and high spirits.

Music Concerts

The Sartori Woodwind Quintet

Talented musicians gave two concerts second semester which were attended by Juniata's music loving audience. On February 5th Deborah Cook and Peter Segal, coloratura soprano and classical guitarist, appeared in Oller Auditorium. Miss Cook made her debut at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, earning a standing ovation. Mr. Segal studied guitar in Spain under a protege of Andres Segovia. The pair presented a program of short songs by Bach, Mozart, Scarlatti, Durante, and Torelli.

On April 15th, the Sartori Woodwind Quintet appeared, a five member group performing on flute, clarinet, oboe, bassoon, and French horn. The name Sartori is Japanese, meaning an exciting and rich experience, which was certainly provided by the Quintet for their audience.

Artists in Residence

The artists in residence helped to enhance the life of Juniata College this year. Mr. Yass Hakoshima was the theater artist in residence. A mime artist, Mr. Hakoshima became involved directly in the extra-curricular activities and academic life of the campus. He presented a professional program of mime as a formal introduction to the college.

John Koljonen and his wife, Kyung Sook Lee, were the fall artists in residence. The clarinetist and his wife, a pianist, added to the life of the campus. They presented a concert which was enjoyed by all who attended.

Entertainment such as this jazz group, "The Trio," lends itself well to the atmosphere of "The Human Element."

Coffee House

In choosing the name "The Human Element," the Coffee House Committee wanted to emphasize the variety of ideas which Juniata's Coffee House would represent. It is a place where the senses and the mind can be stimulated—as the Coffee House Charter states. This does not imply that it is for a select group of people, but anyone on campus who cares to find themselves there. One is free to engage in discussion or just to sit and watch the other elements present themselves.

Having undergone a complete renovation, "The Human Element," has come out of hiding to try to offer the campus everything it wants from a Coffee House. "The Human Element" is yours so why not use it!

1968 Football

After Juniata defeated Westminster 35-27 in the season's opener to avenge the only 1967 loss the Indians fell on hard times for two games losing to Albright and Drexel, but the remainder of the season proved extremely fruitful as the Tribe rolled to six straight wins and set a single season scoring record of 280 points to boot while recording a 7-2 mark.

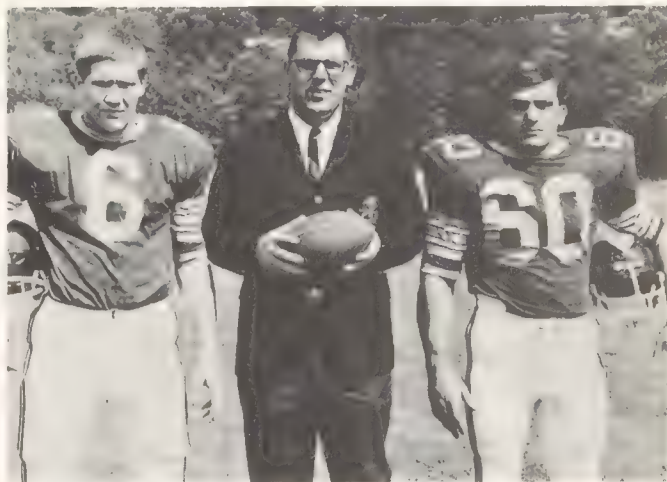

Many individual records went by the wayside with co-captain Don Weiss going into the books no less than ten times and ending his brilliant four-year career with over 5,000 total yards. End Jeff Barnes broke all the established game, season, and career pass catching records and co-captain Dave Fleck went into the books for his placekicking feats.

Many post season honors were bestowed on the Indians. Weiss was selected the most valuable player in the northern division of the Middle Atlantic Conference, for the second consecutive year, and was named to the honorable mention list of Little All-Americans also for the second time and was again named to the All-State second team.

Fleck and Cliff Berg were first team MAC choices and were both honorable mention all-staters. Jim Hartland was a Little All-American honorable mention pick and joined Barnes, Joel Delewski, and Pat Moore as honorable mention conference standouts. In addition, seven Juniata players were named to the ECAC All East squads throughout the course of the season.

The Juniata coaching staff: Ed Rogers, Larry Landini, Fred Prender, Charles Bunton, and Sam Cessna.

Don set to throw.

For the past four years Juniata has been fortunate to have Don Weiss of Athens leading its offensive attack as the Indians have produced fine football on College Field.

Don, who although not drafted in the professional ranks, still has aspirations of playing for pay next year. Don completed his senior year with 10 all time Juniata records under his belt including over 5,000 total yards gained via passing and running and over 300 pass completions.

Juniata has long had a tradition of top notch small college football and has had its share of outstanding players to go with that record. Surely Don Weiss will be included among the Juniata gridiron greats in the future.

Don and his brother Bob, former All-American basketball player at Penn State, make quite an athletic duo.

In action against Lycoming, Don looks for a receiver downfield as Harry Gicking, a secondary receiver, waits near the sideline.

Coach Fred W. Prender

For the past six years coach Prender has guided the fortunes of Juniata football to the heights of success and at the close of the season he resigned to accept the head coaching position at Bucknell University.

For three of the six years he served in a dual role acting as Juniata's athletic director in addition to his coaching chores. His football teams showed a six year mark of 30 wins against 19 defeats and a tri-championship of the northern division of the Middle Atlantic Conference in 1967. During the last two seasons the Indians recorded 14 wins while losing only three contests.

On the Juniata athletic scene coach Prender will surely be missed.

MAC Championship — 12th

Captain Rick Beard and coach Russ Trimmer.

Two-time captain Rick Beard

In four years of varsity cross country competition Rick Beard set a Juniata standard that will be hard to duplicate in the future for any Indian runner.

He entered 38 dual meets and came out victorious in 22 of them never finishing any lower than fifth in his entire career. In 1968 he topped that off with a fine third place finish in the Middle Atlantic Conference championship meet against more than 300 other runners.

In both his freshman and sophomore years he won four meets and he captured six firsts during his junior year. In his final season he won eight of nine meets. His career total shows 22 firsts, eight seconds, six thirds, one fourth, and one fifth.

He retired the record for Juniata's 4.6 mile course in his junior year with a 24:26.6 clocking and when the course was lengthened to 4.8 miles he also set that record with a time of 25:15.

Perhaps the greatest measure of his determination was the fact that throughout his four years at Juniata the cross country team never posted a winning season, but he had the determination to try to run like the wind to boost the Tribe to victory.

Basketball

Head coach—Russ Trimmer

The Juniata basketball team put its best record together in ten years as the Indians topped the .500 mark for the first time in a decade while compiling a 13-9 overall record and qualifying for the Middle Atlantic Conference playoffs for the first time.

The Tribe hoopsters, a sophomore dominated team, dropped their first two games and then captured seven in a row. The remainder of the season was a see-saw affair. The Indians played fantastically well at home and remained undefeated in eleven contests in Memorial Gym.

Juniata finished fourth in the northern division of the MAC with a 9-5 record and went up against perennial conference champion Wagner in the first playoff game at Albright. The Indians stunned the league leaders with an 89-88 overtime victory and moved into the championship game.

The Tribe faced a Scranton team with a 19-5 record and it just wasn't in the cards for Juniata to win. The Indians came back from a 50-38 deficit midway through the second half to take a two point lead late in the game, but saw it evaporate and Scranton won by a 63-61 margin.

John Smith led the Indian scorers with a 21.7 per game average. Charles Harvey was the leading Juniata rebounder and Jim McCarthy led in the assist department. The Indians will have all five starters returning next season and a good year is on the horizon.

Wrestling

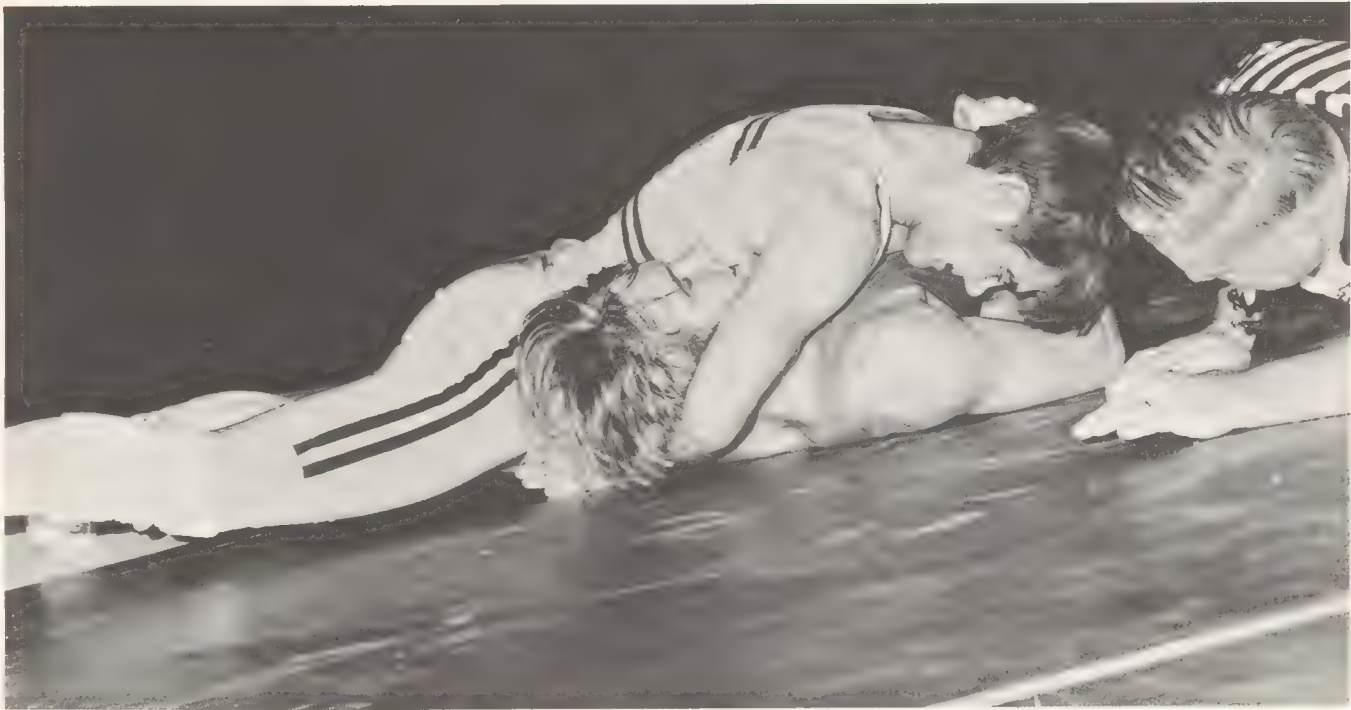

The Juniata wrestlers posted the best season in history on the mats as they won eight and dropped only three dual meets under the guidance of coach Bill Berrier.

The Juniata co-captains, Ron Hoover and Jack Hopper, led the way for the Tribe. Hoover completed the dual meet season with a sparkling 10-1 record and Hopper was right behind with a 9-2 mark. A pair of juniors, Jeff Elwell and Tom Light, also posted good records as they finished 6-2 and 7-3 respectively.

The Indians finished their season by competing in the Middle Atlantic Conference championship meet at Muhlenberg College early in March.

Judo

The Juniata Judo Club highlighted their season by flying to the University of Georgia in early March for the Eastern Collegiate Judo Championships.

Although the team was eliminated in the first round, many of the Indian judoists fared well in the individual competition. Paul Freeman, Juniata's only black belt, took a second place trophy in the Easterns.

Earlier in the year, Juniata successfully defended its own open championship crown for the second time by defeating Newark College of Engineering for the title.

The Tribe competed in the National Collegiate Championships at Newark in early April.
